

2022-2023 CEDRIC WARD AND JAMES MITCHELL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

INTRODUCTION

Cedric Ward: made his theatrical debut in Circle Theatre's 1953 production of Little Foxes. In 1966 he was instrumental in founding the first children's theatre company at Circle and directed and wrote the first production Hansel & Gretel. He was an influential director, performer and volunteer for over 40 years. He was honored by the Giant Awards and the Arts Council of Greater Grand Rapids for his leadership.

The Cedric Ward Scholarship is valued at $1000

James Mitchell: dedicated over 25 years of service to the Theatre community as a performer, technician, and production manager. He held various leadership positions with numerous theatre arts organizations within the Grand Rapids community and a distinguished volunteer award is held in his name.

The James Mitchell Scholarship is valued at $500

REQUIREMENTS

The application must be typed and completed in full. One application qualifies a candidate for both scholarships. However, it is rare that one person receives both scholarships in the same year.

Three letters of recommendation, (one which is theatre related) must accompany the application.

The applicant must have participated in at least one Circle Theatre production, as a performer, crew member or on a production staff.

The applicant must be enrolled in or have been accepted to an accredited college or training program. However, the applicant is not required to be working toward a theatre or performance related degree. This is an annual competitive award. Previous recipients must reapply each year.

REVIEW PROCESS

Applications will be reviewed by a committee made up of the Circle Theatre staff. The decision made by the committee shall be final and will be based on the information contained in the application.

The candidates receiving the highest total points in the following criteria will be awarded the scholarships:

- Production experience at Circle Theatre (possible 40 points)
- Previous academic success (possible 25 points)
- Letters of recommendation (possible 25 points)
- Presentation of application (possible 10 points)

TIMELINE

Applications must be postmarked no later than November 15th, 2022
